40.4.1 informing the offender of the purpose of the meeting;

40.4.2 providing the offender with details of the alleged offence;

40.4.3 identifying the provision of this constitution or the rule allegedly contravened; and

40.4.4 Inviting the offender to attend the meeting to make representations, provided that the offender may not participate in the decision making or voting at the meeting.

40.5 After the offender has been given the opportunity to present their case, the trustee committee may, if agreed by at least 75% of the trustee committee members present at the duly constituted meeting, impose an "initial penalty" for the first offence and a "subsequent penalty" for every identical offence thereafter, without derogating the rights in law of the trustee committee to take further action. Should the offender not attend the meeting without providing a reasonable request for postponement, the trustee committee may continue with the meeting and impose an initial penalty or subsequent penalty in the offender's absence. The reasons for the trustee committee's decision to impose an initial penalty or subsequent penalty must be provided to the offender in writing within 7 (seven) days following the meeting.

40.6 Any amount due by an offender by way of an "initial penalty" and/or "subsequent penalty" imposed in terms of clause 40.5 shall be a debt due by the offender to the Association.

40.7 Any penalty imposed in terms of clause 40.5, if it is not paid within 14 (fourteen) days after the offender has been notified of the imposition thereof, may be added to the monthly levy which the offender is obliged to pay to the Association.

40.8 No offender shall be entitled to any of the privileges of membership, including the use of the communal amenities and voting at any meeting, unless the offender shall have paid every "initial penalty" and/or "subsequent penalty" imposed in terms of clause 40.5.

40.9 The decision of the trustee committee to impose an "initial penalty" and/or "subsequent penalty" in terms of clause 40.5 shall be final and binding, but shall not restrict the rights of the offender who is dissatisfied by the decision to invoke the provisions of clauses 35 and or 36 above.
